Camp Quaker Heights Position on Sexual Orientation

Camp Quaker Heights has been privileged for over 150 years to be able to use the unique benefits of Christian camping to serve people by presenting the truth of God, as found in His Word, with the love of God, as demonstrated by His people, so that lives can be changed to the Glory of God. CQH affirms that all people are made in the likeness of God and are therefore of intrinsic value to others and to God. We also affirm that bullying or harassment in regard to this issue does not exemplify Christlikeness and is unacceptable. We will promote an environment that shares that conviction.

Camper Policy:

Camp Quaker Heights recognizes that some individuals experience a conflict between their biological sex and the sex with which they identify. That said, it is our sincere religious belief, as affirmed by the general body of Iowa Yearly Meeting, that the Scriptures teach God creates each person as distinctly male or female and campers will be addressed as such. Requests contrary to this position will be treated on a case by case basis, with the potential involvement of these individuals: our CQH Director, the General Superintendent of Iowa Yearly Meeting, the presider of our Youth and Adult board, the specific camp's director, as well as the guardians and student involved in the request. Any special consideration should be requested before registration is completed..
